"I have never worked in a school with such regard for the well-being of staff." (Staff well-being survey, 2023)

Lakenheath Community Primary School is seeking an enthusiastic, experienced Key Stage 2 teacher, ideally with upper KS2 experience, to join our dedicated and forward-thinking team from September.

This is a particularly exciting time to join our school as we prepare to move into our brand-new school building. With this move comes genuine opportunities for leadership development, including the potential for core subject leadership for the right candidate.

We are looking for someone who:

- Is an experienced KS2 practitioner with strong curriculum knowledge
- Has high expectations for all pupils and a passion for excellent teaching and learning
- Is willing to lead, share ideas and contribute positively to whole-school development
- Is reflective, innovative and committed to continuous improvement
- Can inspire children and foster our strong love of learning
- be a team player with ambition to learn, develop and share pedagogy
- Relates strongly to our core 6R values: risk taking, reflectiveness, resourcefulness, respect, relationships and resilience,

What we can offer you:

- We offer a supportive staff team, enthusiastic pupils and an ambitious leadership vision
- Our new school site which will provide a modern, inspiring learning environment and fresh opportunities for innovation
- Opportunities for ongoing personal and professional development through collaborative coaching and wider CPD
- A friendly, welcoming school community with supportive governors and parents.

If you are an experienced teacher ready for an exciting next step, with the drive to make a real difference and take on leadership responsibility, we would love to hear from you. Visits to the school are warmly welcomed.

About us

During our recent Ofsted inspection (GOOD: February 2024), it was noted how "pupils enjoy coming to this friendly village school" and how "staff are proud to work at the school". We were delighted that 100% of our parents confirmed they would recommend our school to others on the Ofsted parent survey.
