

The SEND small group room teacher will be responsible for teaching a small group of pupils (for up to 12 pupils with Special Educational Needs in KS1).

Teaching and Learning

To undertake the planning, teaching and assessment of pupils with SEND in the small group room, catering for individual needs

To provide a quality of teaching and learning provision so that all pupils make progress in line with the targets and recommendations of their learning plans or EHCPs.

To work closely with the main school SENDCo to monitor pupil social communication development.

To contribute actively to provision mapping and annual reviews.

To support pupils, if appropriate, during any involvement with the main school, personalising learning as needed.

To supervise, plan and guide, as appropriate, the work of any support staff who are assigned to work with the group.

To take account of pupils' prior attainment, learning styles and needs and use them to set appropriately challenging targets and learning activities.

To keep high quality records to promote tracking and monitoring of pupil progress using data and teacher assessment records.

To mark, assess and report on pupils' work in line with school policy, providing constructive oral and written feedback with clear targets and guidance for future improvement.

Pastoral Care

To provide pastoral support and guidance for all pupils in the small group room

To take responsibility for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young persons.

To work closely with the support staff

To be the first point of contact for parents to update them on their child's day, learning and achievements

To set targets for high expectations for pupils' behaviour, learning, motivation and presentation of work by establishing a purposeful working atmosphere and providing challenging and inspirational learning experiences.

To offer Parent Evenings' meetings as well as complete written reports to keep parents informed as to attainment and the progress of their child towards targets.

Flexibility

The above list is not exhaustive and other duties may be attached to the post from time to time. Variation may occur to the duties and responsibilities without changing the general character of the post. The SEND Teacher will be required to attend training relevant to the role.

Safeguarding

To be aware of and implement the measures detailed within the School's Safeguarding Policy and to work with the Designated Safeguarding Lead to ensure the welfare and well-being of all pupils at the school.
